CONCLUSIONS

The second Round table hosted interested participants from the public sector in the area. The Round table was attended by 23 participants. Stakeholders from various areas of the economy were present, among others from the companies Alumina and Zeochem, the City Administration of Zvornik, the Regional Landfill in Zvornik, the Municipality of Srebrenica, the Geological Institute of the Republic of Srpska, the laboratory "Euroinspekt" and others. The attendees were addressed at the beginning of the meeting by prof. Ljubica Vasiljević, Ph.D., coordinator of the project in front of the Faculty of Technology Zvornik, who emphasized the importance of gatherings within the round table, as well as the ECOBIAS project, for the improvement of the higher education system. HL Teaching Assistant Mirjana Beribaka gave an introductory lecture, and the guests of the round table, who were also lecturers, gave their presentations.

Participants were satisfied with the information received and assessed the event as very well organized. Also, they actively participated in the Round table discussion. It can be concluded that such an event should be organized more often in order to connect the real sector and universities.

The visibility of the Round table is ensured by announcements on several media:
