Purpose, objectives and elements of event

Open Day organized for the third time as part of the Faculty Day. The purpose of the Open Day was to promote LLL courses in the field of EMAB, which is organized at the Faculty of the University of Mostar, which is one of the partner members of the ECOBIAS project. Also, the Open Day is intended for students and to inform other participants and the general public about the activities and results of the Project and further perspectives in environmental monitoring and assessment of aquatic ecosystems.

Potential partners were introduced to ECOBIAS activities and LLL courses, conditions and benefits of participating in LLL courses.

LIST OF PARTICIPANTS

The List of participant is on the second page of this document.

The Open Day moderator was Dragan Škobić, PhD.

Participant in the classroom: 20 students (see Attendance List) from undergratuated and graduated study of biology and study of ecology and nature protection and 2 assistants.

Date of the 1st day

27th of April 2022

CONCLUSIONS

The open day was held as part of the Faculty's Open Day and received a great response and interest in LLL courses. As part of the Open Day, some students expressed their interest in certain courses.

Also of significant interest was the equipment acquired as part of the ECOBIAS project, which completed the equipment for courses that require field practice.
