Date of the 1st day

Friday, 9 December 2022

Following the registration, the conference was opened by coordinators/hosts (see Agenda, Day 1), which was followed by the presentation of the general report on the ECOBIAS ERASMUS+ project. Partner institution reports were then presented by online presenters during Parts 1 and 2, which was followed by task leaders' presentations by WP (1 through 6). The final section of the first day was the delivery of the final project report.

Date of the 2nd day

Saturday, 10 December 2022

Following the registration of participants (online/in-person), and the student info desk registration and ECOBIAS promo material distribution, the student enrolment and study report was presented. The next section of the second day was the introduction of the ECOBIAS student conference which included presentations by the students. A constituent part of the final day of the final conference was also conducted – the promotion of the webinar – environmental protection – Erasmus + Project Common Environment (Mainstreaming Environmental Communication through Online Learning and Virtual Mobility, KA220 – HED – 92DDFB04).

This was followed by the discussion on the future institutional cooperation and project sustainability and the closing of the conference.

CONCLUSIONS

The ECOBIAS ERASMUS+ final conference event was organised as a final two-day hybrid conference (online and in-person presentations), providing an opportunity to wrap up the results of the project.

The first day of the conference was primarily dedicated to the presentations of the final reports by partner institutions and task leaders. On the second day of the final conference, students joined and presented their work.

All items of the agenda were complied with and successfully presented as planned.
